

WHEREAS, This is the season of the wheat harvest in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The wheat industry is an important mainstay in the economy of South Dakota, the eighth largest wheat producing State in the nation; and,

WHEREAS, Wheat is an important food for the people of this State and nation and throughout the world; and,

WHEREAS, In order to emphasize the benefits received by all citizens of the State through production and sale of wheat, through related agribusiness and through the abundance, the excellence, and the economy of foods produced from wheat for the consumers of this State:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of July, 1973, as

and hereby urge the people of South Dakota to acquaint themselves with the many phases of the wheat industry engaged in wheat production, handling, storage, transportation, milling and baking; and to give due regard to the importance of wheat in the economy and in the field of foods during this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 20th day of June, in the Year Of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Three.
